2006 Camp Highroad Summer Camp

Submitted by Norma Burnett

From the grassy meadows of Presgrave and Steptoe Hill, through the woodlands, and to the banks of North Fork and Beaver Dam Creek the natural beauty of Camp Highroad is a testimony to our Creator's magnificence. Camp Highroad's 657 acres of rolling hills, woodland, and farmland are the setting for a time of fun filled adventure.

For the 57th year, Camp Highroad will be a place where memories that last a lifetime are made. Campers will make new friends, encounter the natural world, and learn about their faith in a safe Christian environment.

2006 Summer Theme: Crossroads

Jesus told His disciples if they wanted to follow Him they must take up their cross. This summer campers will be encouraged to seek out the CROSSROADS in their lives. They will learn what Jesus did on the cross for them and how they can follow His example of self-sacrifice for the sake of others.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Please register by filling out the form or by completing one online. A $100 minimum deposit is required at the time of registration. The remainder is due by June 1, 2006 and will be automatically charged to your card unless you send a check before that date. The fee is refundable (minus a $25

DO YOU HAVE A STORY?

Do you have a story to tell about your walk with Jesus? Were you touched by The Spirit at an early age, or did you stumble through life (as this editor did) for years before you opened your life and your heart to Jesus?

If so, why don't you take the time to share it with your Brothers and Sisters in Christ?

Witnessing to the powers of Christ and how he has touched us can be a powerful tool in showing His love and grace and how He has transformed our lives to others. Your story could be the turning point for someone who is currently stumbling, but searching for something that could bring joy for eternity.

Think about it. We'd love to share your story.

Shy, unsure or need help? Contact John Derickson, Linda Ennis or Pastor Russ. We'd love to help.

An Easter Message: Resurrection for Today

Submitted by Pastor Russ Urban

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him..." Mark 16:1-7

One of the blessings of the Resurrection is what it implies for us today. Death has been conquered; it has been transformed from prison to corridor. Those who believe in Christ are not separated from God, but are promised eternal life in the presence of God. The stone has been rolled away from our tomb as well as from Christ's. We live as heirs of the Resurrection; Christ is risen, and we will also live again! Hallelujah!

The women approached the tomb, not knowing how the impossible would be accomplished. They were not expecting a Resurrection; they just wanted to anoint Jesus' body. If they were to honor Jesus' body in death, they wondered, who would roll away the heavy stone that covered the grave?

Could it be that we approach Easter in similar ways? We pour into churches, year after year, celebrating Jesus' resurrection, but perhaps not quite understanding the nature of the Resurrection. We believe that after we die we will live again. Christ is raised, and we will be raised. But the Bible also teaches that Christ is raised and we are raised — right now! Resurrection is also now!

The early church understood this. In Paul's work with the early church, he repeatedly spoke of the implications of the Resurrection for Christians. Paul reminded the Ephesians that they were raised up with Christ and seated in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6). To the people in Colossae, he said: "When you are buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead" (Col. 2:12). Further reminding them of the implications of their resurrection, he began with the words, "So if you have been raised with Christ . . ." (Col. 3:1). To the Galatians, Paul said, "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me" (Gal. 2:19-20). The early church was regularly reminded of the present-day implications of the Resurrection for Christians.

People in Christ are given an opportunity to experience Resurrection — the old life is behind us, a new life in heaven lies before us. Jesus has rolled away the stone for us. People of God, emerge from the tomb and live.

Used Stamps

One may think or even say, "I do not have time" or "I am not qualified for mission work." However, we all receive mail with cancelled stamps on it. Please cut off the stamps and put them in mailbox #24 in the upstairs hallway. Collecting of cancelled stamps is an on-going mission project and helps many who are less fortunate.

Sunday, 9:30 A.M., the elite visitor awareness commandos go into action.

During the past few months, our church library has undergone a renovation with old books being weeded and newly donated books catalogued and added to shelves.

Our library catalog is now housed in a notebook rather than a card file. You'll find dividers in the notebook with lists of books in the following categories:

By Title	By Author
Fiction – Adult	Fiction - Adult
Fiction – Juvenile	Fiction - Juvenile
Non-Fiction – Adult	Non-Fiction - Adult
Non-Fiction – Juvenile	Non-Fiction - Juvenile
Bible Stories
Poetry/Rhymes/Songs – Children
Prayers/Devotions-Children

We also have some “Easy” books for young children, a few large print books, and some videotapes. These are not cataloged but do have cards in the back for checkout.

We're always happy to receive donated books but we have some space constraints so please limit your donations to fairly current religious or inspirational books. We can't accept magazines and unfortunately, don't have the space for cookbooks or books on gardening, home decorating, etc. The public library system and the library at Northern Virginia Community College will take used books which they sell at various times during the year and use the proceeds for library projects.

Methodist Men's Corner

By Joe BeMiller

The United Methodist Men met for their monthly meeting On March 13, 2006 in the churches conference. A welcome was given to the men who were here for the first time.

Testimony was presented by Emmett Wright who shared his Faith Journey.

The Colonnade

Jack Jewell handed out a copy of the United Methodist Men History and asked everyone to read it. Then he asked all to pass it onto other men within our congregation and invite them to come to the next meeting.

Service projects were discussed and a discussion was made that a “love offering” basket will be provided during UMM men meeting to help with the Free the Debt program.

David Ruebsamen brought to the table that Boy Scout Troop 964 will be hosting the 8th Annual Trail show at Saunders Middle School on March 18th and 19th. It will be a great show as always and train enthusiast is encouraged to attend.

Doug Phelps presented to members over the age of 50 that the program “55 Alive” was available. This is a driving program. It entails a lot of good training and information. He also stated that insurance companies will award a deduction in auto insurance for taking the course.

David Ruebsamen also presented an upcoming event provided by Agency of the Aging. This program, is a care givers conference for those who might have to provide care to the elderly, other members of the family or if you know someone who is in that situation. On hand at the conference will be information about care giving as well as vendors who provide the necessary equipment for such a task. The date for this conference is April 29th from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The Challenge: President Jack Jewell handed over the Challenge to Joe BeMiller. The Youth Fellowship announced that they will have a lock-in starting on Friday, March 31st. This lock-in will consist of games, movies and service. On Saturday, the 1st day of April, the youth will wake up around 8:30 a.m. and as a service project they will be cleaning the church grounds. United Methodist Men who are not obligated during this time are encouraged to join the youth on this project.

From the Finance Committee

A special thanks goes out to everyone who could join us for Cokesbury's 20th Annual Spaghetti Dinner on March 11th!

To the members of the Finance Committee for their efforts in bringing it all together; to Diane Haggart for organizing the kitchen needs; to the sauce makers, the Clarks, the Haggarts, and the Mahars, for providing a wonderful variety of delicious sauces; to the Youth leaders for providing help wherever it was needed; to the Youth who provided another PHENOMENAL display of service and attentiveness in keeping the food & drinks flowing and adding their special zip to the evening; and, of course, to the diners, who provided the fun and fellowship and made it whole.

Thanks to you all the 2-hour dinner provided over 550 much needed dollars to the church's Operations and Ministry fund.

EASTER CARDS

Missionary outreach continued in March as we signed and sent Easter Cards to the Missionaries of the VA Conference. Please keep those who serve God both here and overseas by serving others and presenting God's love and grace to those who are experiencing His love and grace for the first time.

SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE DINNER UPDATE!

Thanks for making the Pancake Dinner held on February 28th a huge success. Your generous giving of $146.50 will be used by United Methodist Volunteers In Mission to support those volunteer work teams who travel all over the world and nation providing urgent care during a time of need.

MISSION MINUTE:

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says God. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts."
Isaiah 55:8

Being a missionary surgeon is difficult. You're not practicing your profession for yourself, but you reflect somebody else. If I have a private practice, my motivation is to do a really good job so patients will refer more patients and I will earn more money and maybe become rich and famous. Being a missionary doctor means if I do something wrong, that reflects on my God. If I do something good, that, too, reflects on my God. So that is much harder!

I'm from Marikina City in the Philippines. I grew up in The United Methodist Church, so my second family is my church. As a missionary, I am assigned to Tansen United Mission Hospital in Nepal. It's almost 200 miles from Kathmandu. My job description is senior surgeon. I also am in charge of the burn unit, and I am the foreign medical students' coordinator.

Jesus didn't just preach God's reign. He ministered to the sick, healing both the body and the spirit. I'd like to follow Jesus' example. Before surgery, I ask patients if I can pray with them. I ask God to guide my hands and my intra-operative decisions, that I do no harm. And I pray for God to give my patient peace. My patients express that they feel confident and secure knowing their surgeon does not rely on her knowledge and strength, but on God.

We don't have a CT scan here. One day I had to operate on a brain. I never had done brain surgery without CT scan. As I scrubbed, I prayed, "I hope my covenant churches are praying for me right now because, otherwise, I know this won't be successful." And by Sunday, the patient was up, walking!

One joy of being a missionary is being connected with so many people. People send cards and emails to tell me, "We're praying for you," and that is so awesome! I like working with people from other Christian faiths, bound by God's love. I am grateful for United Methodists who assist me through the Advance for Christ and His Church. Thank you!

- Elma Jocson, general surgeon, Tansen (Nepal) United Mission Hospital

God of all knowledge and strength, your Son was the Great Physician. Help us to heal our sisters and brothers in body and spirit. In your name we pray. Amen.

Camp Highroad is open to all children regardless of their age, race, religion, disabilities, gender, family status, or nationality. Camp Highroad is a Christian camp and behavior consistent with Christian values is expected.

COUNSELORS

Camp Highroad's counselors are carefully selected. We look for genuine faith, compassion, and a desire to serve God by ministering to the children and youth who attend Camp Highroad. All counselors are college age and complete an intensive 12-day training.

Senior staff spend time with counselors throughout the summer to ensure they continue to meet the high standards we require.

OPEN HOUSE

Come out and visit Camp Highroad May 7th or 28th from 1:00-4:00pm. Bring your campers out to see where they will be staying this summer, get a look at the cabins, program areas, and meet some of the Highroad staff.

For additional registration forms, information, and individual camp descriptions see the Church Secretary.

Next Pot Luck and Praise

April 8, 2006

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

We had plenty of food and the Lord's Spirit filled the fellowship hall on March 25th from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. as we sang praises to His Glory. Joe B. Miller and the Shout For Joy Band provided the music.

The next Pot Luck and Praise is scheduled for April 8, so why don't you just go ahead and mark that calendar now and join Joe and the band next month?

Food, as is the case at most United Methodist pot luck affairs, was more than ample. Reports have come in to the news bureau that Olga Fraser even gave her new knee a workout as she kept time to the music! Her doctors will be pleased with this news.

Come on now! Go mark that calendar and we'll see you at the Fellowship Hall at 6 p.m. on April 8.
